Final Report Reminders

A committee's final report will not be accepted unless the committee demonstrates that all surplus funds have been properly disbursed and reported on Schedule I in one of the following ways:

- Transferring the excess funds to a campaign committee account for a future election;
- Retiring the outstanding debts incurred by a previous campaign committee;
- Returning to the contributors in amounts not more than the contributors' original contributions;
- Donating to a charitable organization as described in §170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code;
- Donating the excess to one or more candidate campaign or political committees; or
- Defraying any ordinary, non-reimbursed expense related to the candidate's elected office.

NOTE: It is illegal for any person or officer of the committee to convert any contribute moneys, securities, or like tangible personal property to his personal use.
